Gain Three Villages in Most Powerful Drive of the New Offensive

FRENCH REPULSE GERMANS

Desperate Resistance of the Teutons Opposite Guinchy Stops Advance of English Troops—Allies Again Are Successful in Macedonia Where British Again Cross Struma

(Associated Press Telegram) London, Sept. 16.—The heavy offensive launched yesterday by the British north of the Somme, the most powerful in weeks, was successful in gaining ground along the entire line, except immediately opposite Guinchy, where the Germans clung on desperately, today's dispatches indicate.

The most important points gained were the villages of Courcellette, east to Thiepval, Martincourt, south of the Pozieres-Bapaume road, and Flers, two miles north of Guinchy. These three villages are now completely in possession of the British, London announces today. The Germans have begun counter-attacks at points where they recently advanced, both north and south of the Somme. Paris today reports the repulse of German attacks east of Clerf, immediately north of the Somme and near Berny, below the river, southeast of Estrees.

In Macedonia, where notable successes for the entente troops against the Bulgarians in the center and on the left wing were reported yesterday, with renewed activity is announced on the right flank where the British have again thrown skirmishers across the Struma and raided villages occupied by the Bulgarians. A continuous bombardment of Bulgarian positions in the Doiran region indicates the probability that the British are about to strike with their infantry in this sector.

In Dobruja, southern Rumania, the Bulgarians, Turks and Germans have won a decisive success against the Rumanians and Russians, Field Marshal von Mackensen reports. The announcement is contained in a telegram sent by Emperor William to the emperor.

Petrograd reports the situation in the Russians and Galician war theaters unchanged.

Dispatches from Athens announce that M. Callaghyveropoulos, a lawyer and member of the former Theotokis cabinet has been summoned by King Constantine to his residence at Tatoi and indicates that the former minister has been entrusted with the formation of a new Greek cabinet.

OHIO ELECTRIC TO ABANDON BIG WOODEN TRESTMILE

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Sept. 16.—Elimination of grade crossings over the Norfolk and Western tracks along Alum creek, provided by city ordinance but delayed by the failure of the railroad company and the Ohio Electric to agree as to how the traction line should cross, will be speeded up as result of a decision rendered yesterday by Common Pleas Court Judge Evans. He held that the traction's wooden trestle over the railroad tracks at Mound street should be abandoned and a subway at Main street used. This will allow the Norfolk and Western to elevate its tracks, which it claimed could not be done without removing the trestle.

East-bound Ohio Electric cars, under the new plan, will leave Mound street at Bullen avenue, thence north to Main and east through the subway to Magnolia avenue, where a single track will be built to connect with the present tracks leaving the city. This change, it is estimated, will cost $22,000, of which Judge Evans holds, $3,439 should be paid by the Norfolk and Western and $28,560 by the Ohio Electric.

Widow of Mexican War Veteran is a Pension Applicant

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—The first application from a Mexican war widow for the benefits of the new Ashbrook widows' pension law was received at Representative Ashbrook's office today. The applicant is Mary M. Stasel of Summit street, Newark. Her husband John Stasel, was a private in Company B, second Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry in the war with Mexico. The same mail brought a letter from Archie Thompson of Coshocton County, stating that there is in that county a Mexican war widow 84 years old, giving the facts as to the husband's service and inquiring whether or not she is entitled to a pension. Ashbrook did not wait to write to Thompson, but sent him a telegram, advising him that the old lady, whose name Ashbrook does not know, is entitled to $20 a month the remainder of her life on the facts set forth in Thompson's letter.

EUGENIC PROBLEM SOLVED WITH CLUB BY ZULU PARENTS.

(Associated Press Telegram) Chicago, Sept. 16.—A club is the solution of the eugenics problem among the Zulus of Africa, said J. H. Balmer, for 32 years a resident of that country before the International Lyceum convention here last night.

"When a baby is born to Zulu parents and it appears to be below the Zulu standard, it is given a gentle wallop over the head," he explained. "After that there is a funeral."

DEMAND

FOR LOCATION FOR NEW BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENTS IS GROWING.

Chamber of Commerce Receives Many Applications for Rooms and Factory Locations.

The Chamber of Commerce is beginning to get a number of demands for rooms and buildings to be used for commercial and manufacturing purposes and the co-operation of Newark citizens along this line, is being solicited.

The Chamber has received a request for a room either on the first or second floor, near the central part of the city, it possible, with 5,000 foot floor space. This is for a new concern that the Industrial Bureau is now negotiating with, and which will in all probability be a Newark concern before many weeks.

It is not necessary that the room be located near a railroad, as the concern is willing to employ dray service in getting its products to shipping stations.

Another request has been made for a first floor room size 50x150 feet for manufacturing purposes.

President F. L. Beggs of the Chamber of Commerce make the requests that citizens assist the Chamber in landing the new concerns by forwarding to the organization the number of available rooms of buildings to be used for either commercial or manufacturing purposes.

By this manner, Mr. Beggs says, the Chamber will be able to secure a survey of available quarters and compile and list to be used for reference.

EXPLOSION IN CHEMICAL PLANT KILLS SIX MEN

Pittsburgh, Sept. 16.—Bits of bodies hanging to telegraph wires, pieces of flesh scattered through the ruins of the wrecked building, and the fact that six men have been missing since an explosion last night at the plant of the Aetna Chemical company in Oakdale, a suburb, today prompted a hurried investigation by the coroner's office. Officers of the company declared they did not know the number of casualties, but expressed the belief that all at work in the building had been killed.

John Paul of Sayville, Ill., died in a hospital soon after the blast, and a hand, picked up on a road near the plant today, still bore a diamond ring which belonged to B. R. Dodge, night superintendent. A large party of workmen searched the ruins for bodies, and undertakers followed with baskets. No hope was held out that anything but parts of bodies would be found. The plant where the explosion occurred, was said to be engaged in the manufacture of a high explosive.

NEW YORK GIRL IS SPEEDER'S BRIDE

Mrs. John H. Tyson, III.

J. H. Tyson of Riverdale, Conn., who since he inherited a million dollars from his grandfather, George L. Tyson, has been endeavoring to smash all speed records, has taken unto himself a third wife. She was Miss Rose Edd Exner, also of New York. Tyson has accidentally killed several persons with his automobile, and has been arrested many times for speeding. He is twenty-eight.

AFTERNOON TEA MAKES FRITZ AND TOMMY FORGET DIFFERENCES

This interesting scene was made in a British detention camp in France, after a successful attack on the Teuton lines on the Somme front had resulted in the capture of a number of the Kaiser's fighters. It shows the German prisoners enjoying afternoon tea under the eyes of only a British officer and Red Cross orderly, who are seen in the middle background.

SHERIFF

Will Be Tried in U. S. Court for Giving Liberties to Saloonist

SIXTY-DAYS SENTENCE

Was Revoked and Case Will Go to Trial Before U. S. Judge Sater in Columbus Next Week—Prisoner Allowed to Take Auto Rides Over Country and Visit County Fairs

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Sept. 16.—Sheriff Alonzo T. Swepston of Chillicothe, called before United States Judge John E. Sater today for contempt of court for permitting a federal prisoner in his custody to take trips to nearby towns and have other liberties, will have a formal trial on the charges next Saturday morning.

John T. Phillips, Swepston's attorney, was given until next Wednesday night to file a formal answer to the charge.

Swepston admitted his guilt, but declared he had been unaware that the prisoner in question, Charles L. Dye, a Marietta saloon keeper, convicted of violating the federal liquor laws, had been given such liberties. After throwing himself on the mercy of the court, Judge Sater gave him a sentence of 60 days in the Delaware county jail and ordered him to pay the costs.

Attorney Phillips protested that the sentence was too severe and asked for a formal trial. Saying he did not wish to be harsh, Judge Sater then revoked the sentence and ordered the case to trial next Saturday.

Witnesses will be called for both the government and Sheriff Swepston. Government witnesses will be Ramsey, interviewed by Robert D. Ramsey, a government investigator.

JEWEL ROBBERY CLEARED UP BY COLUMBUS COPS

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Sept. 16.—After working more than a year, detectives Gaston and Jones of the Columbus force, last night cleared up one of the biggest residential robberies in the history of the city. Through the arrest in Toledo early this week of a young colored girl giving her name as "Madge Hudson," who admitted that a colored man by the name of George Stanford had given her jewels of considerable value, the detectives arrested the negro and last night secured from him a confession of the robbery on August 15, 1915, of the W. H. Sharp residence here, in which the burglar stole jewels valued at more than $1,500. The loot was all in mounted jewels which the negro had taken from their mountings and had sold or given away. The police say they know where most of the jewels are and are confident of their recovery. More than $600 worth had already been recovered. The police think that Stanford has been implicated in a number of other robberies and holdups here and are seeking to fix the blame for them upon the prisoner.

THE SQUIRREL LAW.

Section 1416 of the Ohio game laws reads as follows: No person shall catch, kill, injure or pursue a squirrel except from the 15th day of September to the 20th day of October, both inclusive. At no time shall any person kill or injure more than five squirrels in any one day.

WOMAN KILLS BIG SNAKE.

(Associated Press Telegram) Defiance, O., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Coy Jones, wielding an axe, killed a 5-foot blue racer yesterday afternoon on the lawn of the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cheney, in the heart of the city.

PROGRESSIVE TICKET. Chicago, Sept. 16.—An entire state ticket and part of a county Progressive ticket was placed in nomination at Wednesday's primary. It was learned today. Just four votes were cast for the ticket, but it may be sufficient to assure the "nominee" a place on the ballot.

CONFEDERATE GENERAL DEAD. New York, Sept. 16.—Basil Wilson Duke, a brigadier general in the confederate army, and a noted Kentucky lawyer, died in a hospital here today, aged 76 years.

NOTHING STOPS NEW DEATH CAR OF THE BRITISH

(Associated Press Telegram) British Front in France, Sept. 16, via London.—The work of the new armored cars in co-operation with the British infantry in their charges in yesterday's successful attack on the one theme of the talk throughout the army today.

"The idea was so good when it was offered," said a staff officer, "that we had some built and the way they have gone over the ground trenches and have infiltrated with machine-gun fire is some return for the surprise the Germans gave us with their gas attacks in the first battle of Ypres."

Evidently the British were able to keep up the building of these cars entirely secret and the first that the Germans knew of their existence was when in the misty dawn yesterday morning they came trundling across shell craters and over tree stumps cutting down many small trees on their way toward the German trenches, onto the second line and even to the third line.

"Tank" is the slang word the army staff has applied to these strange creations, but they look less like tanks than anything else in the world. It is hard to say what they look like. They have been compared both to armadillos and measuring worms and to many other weird creeping or crawling objects of nature. A man of war's nerve, crossing fields, in and out of ditches and through fences, would present a spectacle resembling them.

British army reports never had a stronger passage than one saying that 100 Germans had surrendered to a "tank." The "tanks" have brought a new element into the grim, monotonous business of war trenches, shells and bombs. It was the "tanks" day and the "tanks" made good.

According to reports, trenches of dead were left in its wake when the occupants of trenches tried to hold the ground and did not surrender or fly from its approach. Yesterday as the fire of the "tanks" was, a German prisoner began laughing when recalling the first glimpse of them.

DOUBT

Among Officials Regarding New British Order Restraining Trade

POLICY IS NOT CHANGED

Say British Embassy Officials Who Have Not Had Any New Orders From Home Government—Allows Neutrals to Import Same Amount As Before the War

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Sept. 16.—While state department officials are investigating the latest British order restraining commerce to Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland, officials are in some doubt as to whether it affects American goods already covered by letters of assurance through the operation of the Netherlands overseas trust.

British embassy officials say it does not. They say that no change so fundamental as that reported in London dispatches could possibly have been made without notification to them here.

The only official information before the state department—a cablegram from Consul General Skinner, dated, Sept. 11—seems to support the view that the new order actually works no change, for it says: "It is presumed American goods already covered by letters of assurance will not be stopped."

Absolutely no change of policy has been made by England in months, according to officials of the British embassy. The plan to allow only enough imports into neutral states contiguous to Germany to provide them with such a stock of goods as they consumed before the war, the British officials say has been in operation many months.

They point out that when the maximum stock in any country is reached no more "letters of assurance" are given to Americans and no more licenses are given to British exporters.

HURRY PROBE OF PEN CRUELITIES HEARING GOES ON.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, Sept. 16.—Arrangements to bring the investigation of charges of cruelty against Warden Thomas to a quicker close, were made by members of the board of commerce and the Licking county fair board, are all working in close harmony to promote the interest of both the style week and the County Fair.

At the suggestion of board members, John G. Price, special attorney in the attorney-general's office and the man who is conducting the investigation for the board, eliminated many of the convict witnesses who were to have testified against the warden. Instead of permitting each prisoner to testify, only one prisoner will testify for a group of eight or ten of his companions.

Warden Thomas is expected to begin his rebuttal testimony early next week. He stated today that he would not bring in all of his prisoner witnesses unless it became necessary.

LUNACY WARRANT

Verne Minor was arrested late yesterday afternoon on a lunacy warrant issued by his father, Officers Donnelly and Abbott assisted a deputy sheriff in making the arrest and taking Minor to the county jail.

WOMEN PAVE STREETS WHEN MEN REFUSE; USE WHEELBARROWS.

(Associated Press Telegram) Fremont, Sept. 16.—Not to be outdone by their European sisters, the women of Woodsville, a small village west of Fremont, have undertaken men's work. Working with shovels and wheelbarrows, a number of women are assisting in the paving of First street.

"We can't get the men to do the work, so we are doing it ourselves," the women explain.

STYLE

DURING COUNTY FAIR WILL BE GALA OCCASION AMONG BUSINESS MEN.

Prizes Offered For Best Window Displays, Best Dressed Men and Women—Other Features.

At a meeting last night of the general committee on arrangements for the "Dress-Up Festival and Trade Exposition week of September 23, the committee reported that enough funds have been secured to carry out the special program arranged and to make the festival or style week, one of the most successful in the history of the city.

The Buckeye band has been engaged to give a band concert on Tuesday, September 26, and will also give the signal that will through the city of Newark into a week of brilliancy. Promptly at 7:30 on Tuesday night the Buckeye Band will play a piece, which will be the signal for the unveiling and throwing open to the public the store windows style display. New fabrics and latest styles in both men's and women's wear will be shown by the local merchants and a real treat is in store.

Prizes of $5 will be awarded to the best dressed woman and man on the streets between the hours of 7:30 and 9:30 p. m., on this night. The Buckeye band will render a concert between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 p. m., and following this there will be a prominent speaker talk on "Civic Pride," for 15 minutes. The speaker, for 15 minutes named, but will be announced in a few days.

A committee was appointed last night to take up the matter of illuminating the dome of the court house and for the placing of hundreds of red lights to be lighted by a squad of men, during the big festival parade. The parade will take place immediately after the civic pride address.

The committee announced that about 150 merchants will participate in the opening and each are making elaborate arrangements for the decorations of their show windows.

Three hundred inches of display advertising has been inserted in six county papers and this year's dress-up festival promises to be the greatest held in Central Ohio in many years. The merchants, the Chamber of Commerce and the Licking county fair board, are all working in close harmony to promote the interest of both the style week and the County Fair.

NATIONAL BANK CALL.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, Sept. 16.—The comptroller of the currency today issued a call for the closure of all national banks at the close of business on Tuesday, Sept. 12.

CHINA APPEALS TO AMERICA THROUGH MINISTER REINSCH

Paul S. Reinsch.

Appeals from China to preserve that country from the encroachments of the Japanese have been communicated to Washington by Paul S. Reinsch, American minister to Peking. It is understood that any protests made by the United States will be ignored by Japan, which is believed to have settled definitely on its course of action.

CONSPIRACY

Charge May Be Brought Against Leader in New York

BUSINESS MEN CO-OPERATE

Claim That Efforts to Cause General Strike Constitutes An Offense—Trade Unions Vote Today to Decide Question of Joining In Big Walkout—Predict 70,000 Men Will Quit

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, Sept. 16.—While labor leaders were perfecting plans for a sympathetic walkout by 75,000 workers to aid the striking street railway men, officials of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company against which the fight is principally directed, discussed today the possibility of instituting action charging conspiracy against the Union leaders.

Business men and marchers, who have suffered heavily because of the traction tie up are said to be co-operating in the movement to restrain the labor leaders. James L. Quackenbush general counsel for the Interborough said he was certain his company could obtain an injunction restraining the strikers and their leaders from interfering with the loyal employees of the Interborough in the event such a course is deemed advisable.

Several trade unions voted today for the purpose determining their response to the call for a sympathetic strike to back up the striking street car employees. By Monday labor leaders expect to learn the sentiment of the longshoremen, teamsters, tide water boatmen, coal bargemen and stationary engineers and firemen, to whom the carmen have particularly addressed their appeal. By Monday, they assert, 70,000 men will be called out "to protect the very life of union labor in New York."

The union leaders announce that the majority of the members of machinists unions having a membership of 25,000 have voted to strike at midtown plants in this city as a protest to the financial interests controlling the subway, elevated and street car lines.

Should the longshoremen, boatmen and coal barge workers go out, this strike leaders say virtually all work along the water front will be tied up. The police commissioner has been informed that 8,000 coal bargemen will quit work today. It is stated that the longshoremen have voted almost unanimously to go out.

This movement is described by the central federated union as "preliminary to a general strike." While it is estimated there are 800,000 trade unionists in New York, it is said the leaders do not count on calling out more than 400,000 of them as an extreme measure.

One man was killed and 34 persons were injured in accidents on the elevated and surface car lines within the last 24 hours.

MRS. HOWE

SISTER OF PRESIDENT WILSON, DIED THIS MORNING AT NEW LONDON

President Was Shocked When Telegram Announced Her Death—She Sank Rapidly Last Night

(Associated Press Telegram) New London, Conn., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Anne Howe, only sister of President Woodrow Wilson, died at her apartments in a local hotel early today. Mrs. Howe had been extremely ill for about a week with peritonitis and the end had been expected at any moment for the last two days. The president was informed of his sister's critical condition and on Monday came here, returning Wednesday to Shadow Lawn. Mrs. Howe had been too weak to recognize him. He was kept constantly informed of her condition and when death came a message was sent to him. Mrs. Howe came here from her Philadelphia home early in the summer with her niece, Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, stopping at a summer hotel in the suburbs. Her health had long been impaired. When her condition became a matter of grave concern Mrs. Howe was brought to a city hotel.

With her was her two sons, Geo. E. Howe, of North Carolina and Wilson Howe, of Richmond, Va., and a daughter, Mrs. Cotran, of Philadelphia, besides Miss Wilson.

WILSON GETS MESSAGE

(Associated Press Telegram) Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 16.—President Wilson received word this morning that his sister, Mrs. Anne Howe, died early today at New London, Conn. He was greatly shocked, particularly since he thought she would live several days longer and he had planned to go to her bedside again. The president plans to attend Mrs. Howe's funeral, which will be held at Columbia, S. C., where her husband and several relatives are buried.

WOMEN

OF FRANCE TAKE PLACES OF MEN ON STREET CARS AND RAILROADS.

Denison Boy Writes of Sacrifices Made by French People to Assure Success in War.

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, O., Sept. 10.—Everywhere in France is seen sacrifice and loyalty on the part of the women who are doing their "bit" to aid their country in the great conflict, according to a letter received by Prof. C. L. Williams of Denison University from Jimmie W. Gaintfort, Denison graduate with the class of 1916 and president of the Denison Y. M. C. A. Mr. Gaintfort is now en route to Mesopotamia where he will take up Y. M. C. A. work among the British soldiers now fighting in that territory. The letter follows:

Dear Dr. Williams:
I have not reached my destination yet but will drop you a note anyway. I had a good trip across the Atlantic. In some ways I feel that Dr. McKibben would have enjoyed the trip more than I did for it was a French boat and the crew and most of the passengers spoke French only. We had however some very fine people on board. A United States consul, Doctors, coming over on the invitation of the French government to do special work. Mrs. Fisher, and her two lovely little children, she writes under the name of "Dorothy Cranfield." Her husband was the last football captain Columbia had and is now driving an ambulance at the front and she was coming over to him. There were many other interesting people on board. A French official who had been in the United States buying horses. One of the children told me that they had lost a brother and eighteen cousins thus far, and their father would leave them as soon as they landed and go too. We did not seem to be considered in danger until the last two days, then they had the lifeboats all ready and we were each assigned a place. We sighted land at 9:30 p. m. Monday and landed Tuesday at 8:00 a. m. We spent Tuesday in Bordeaux visiting the cathedrals and other places of interest and came on here that night on an express. It took us fifteen hours. We came through that great vine country. They have not had rain down here for three months, but the country looked good. They seem to have a very fine irrigation system worked out. But the thing that impresses me most of all is "Poor France." In Bordeaux the conditions and motormen's places are taken almost entirely by girls, many of them refined and fine looking and as you come along you find that even the baggage is mostly handled by girls. We even found them out working on the railroad with picks and shovels. If I live to be an old man I shall never forget some of the scenes that I have seen at the railroad stations where they are going back to the front. Perhaps worst of all is that many, it looks like half are in mourning, young widows. We find everywhere this sign "Laissez-vous! Mettez-vous! Les oreilles ennemies vous recontenteront." and one of the men traveling with us who speaks French says he has not heard a Frenchman mention the word war. But you can see everywhere sacrifice and loyalty.

The whole city here is full of soldiers. I wish I might tell you more but Mr. Censor would probably object.

We expect to get away from here Aug. 19 on the S. S. "Rhylor." Our plans may have to be given to British officers, in that event we will be in France another week.

Let me thank you for your kindness to me during my entire stay in Granville.

Very sincerely,
JIMMIE W. GAINFORT.
Future address: Care Y. M. C. A., Fort Bombay, India.
This is the week when Granville, at no time idle, resumes the multitudinous activities of a typical college town, and all the women's clubs and church organizations begin the strenuous work of the new year. The college men under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. assembled last night in Cleveland Hall and enjoyed a rousing "get-together"; the girls of the Y. W. C. A. engineered the general assembly in Stone Hall and everybody was given the oppor-portunity of shaking hands with everybody else.

Mrs. J. E. Cochran, Mrs. T. S. Chambers, Mrs. Carl Price and Mrs. G. A. Myers entertained the members of the Social Union Friday afternoon. The parlors of the Baptist church which had been effectively decorated for the occasion with asparagus, fern and bright-hued autumn flowers. The tea table prettily decorated, was the center of attraction during the social hour, and two new members, Mrs. G. H. Oxreider and Mrs. R. W. Soule met with a cordial reception. Preceding the tea, Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain, president, presented a "business program." Reports from the secretary, Miss Wilson, and from the treasurer Mrs. Prouty, showed the gratifying activity of the organization during the so-called dull season with an encouraging balance in the bank. Reports also were called for from the heads of committees. Miss Carrie Howland, flower committee; Mrs. J. M. Swartz, visiting, Mrs. C. E. Frank, house, and Mrs. Helen Hunt, special committee. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. C. E. Frank, Mrs. J. A. Barrington and Miss Mordha McCune for their efficient work in directing the work of the cleaning of the church, and to Mrs. Helen Hunt and Mrs. E. E. Hopkins for their initiative in the work of refinishing the hard wood floor of the auditorium. The names of the members who contributed real labor were read as a roll of honor to be preserved. Mrs. Chamberlain has the work well in hand and the monthly socials are increasingly popular.

Mrs. Charles Deeds was hostess at a delightful meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Missionary society at her home in West Broadway, Friday afternoon. Thirty-seven of the members were present. Mrs. William Howe presided, the secretary Mrs. E. P. Cook read a report, and Mrs. Barnes, Sr., led the devotional service. The theme for the home society being the "Outlook for the Year," was discussed in three papers one by Mrs. Dean Ashbrook on "Our Goals," one by Miss Daisy Howe which gave some interesting "Notes from the Young People's Work," another by Mrs. Shields on "Missionary Education." The foreign topic proved no less interesting as presented by Mrs. Barnes and Miss Helen Cook, who each read a paper on the work in Africa. Following the program, dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Deeds assisted by Mrs. A. K. Follett, Mrs. Louis Florio, Mrs. Delbert Case and Miss Gertrude Good. Mrs. A. L. Ralston of Grove City who is visiting Mrs. Alma Tigh, was one of the out of town guests present.

Miss Frances Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, who is ill of typhoid fever in St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, is reported as making a wonderful recovery and were it not for the nature of the disease could comfortably come home in a week's time. Miss Jones may yet be able to return to Bryn Mawr where she is attending school.

Miss Margaret Cowell expects to enter the sophomore class in Wellesley college this fall.

Mrs. Fraker of Columbus has been visiting Granville friends this week. Mr. and Mrs. Merle B. Setton of Pittsburgh are visiting their sister, Mrs. Sara Snider, for a few days.

Mrs. Eva Allison of New Lexington is the guest of Miss Lily Belle Setton for the week-end.

Miss Katherine Critchfield of Mt. Vernon motored to Granville today, where she will be the week-end guest of Mrs. Theodore Johnson.

Buchman of Gambier and her daughter, Miss Charlotte. The latter opened a dainty and attractive tea room this afternoon, which serves the patronage of Granville and Denison people. Lunches, ice cream and delicacies will be served at all hours. The big front room of the house has been transformed by its decorations into a restful retreat which fits the name, "The Blue Bird Tea House," and previous successful experience in the work has fitted Miss Buchman for the role of hostess to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cox, formerly Miss Constance Cheney, D. C. 17, who are on their wedding trip are Granville visitors for a few days. There will be a lecture in Reclinal hall tonight at 7:30 by Dr. W. W. Stollbarger of the U. S. department of agriculture, Washington, D. C. All are invited.

CHANGING

OF TEN COMMANDMENTS IS LEADING-MAKING PILLARS OF GOD'S LAWS.

Evangelist Weaver Discusses Law and Grace of God in Address Before Good Sized Audience.

That the law of God, the ten commandments, is and will ever continue to be the standard of moral conduct and character, and that being understood, does not release the Christian from obedience to the just claims of that law, but actually places him under greater obligation to obey it, was the theme of an address by Evangelist Weaver last night in his address on "Being Under the Law and Under Grace," at the big tent meeting. He said that the law of God, written in tablets of stone, was the only document God himself ever wrote. The law was written by Holy men of God under inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and the law was "written with the finger of God." The abrogation or attempt of the least particle of one of the ten commandments is equivalent to undermining one of the pillars of the government of Jehovah. The prophet Isaiah said concerning Christ who was to come, "The Lord (Jehovah) is well pleased for his (Christ's) righteousness sake. He (Christ) will magnify the law and make it honorable. As we look at the perfect life of Christ, we behold the law of God in action. His life serves as a magnifying glass through which we may look at the ten commandments and see them in all their glorious glory. Christ said, in the church on the mount, 'Think not that I am come to destroy the law, but to fulfill it. Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or tittle shall in no wise pass from the law till all be fulfilled.' 'A jot' is the smallest letter in the Hebrew alphabet, and a 'tittle' is one of the smallest marks in connection with a letter in the alphabet, corresponding to the setting of an 'i' or the passing of a 't'.

In the transgression of the law, the Lord Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Christ, therefore, suffered the penalty of a just law in order that the guilty transgressor might go free. His death on Calvary vindicated, or abrogated the claims of the law and forever established it. Faith in Christ establishes the law in the hearts of true Christians. "Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid, yea, we establish the law." The law of God is written upon the hearts of all true followers of Christ instead of upon tables of stone. In the provisions of the new covenant, the law serves to show what it means to be "under the law" and "under grace." If a man commits murder the civil law says that he must die as a penalty for transgressing the law. He is thus "under the law" and condemned to death. That is, he is "under the curse of the law." But the governor may pardon him, as is frequently the case. The man is then "under grace," and he must not suffer the penalty of the law. He is "released now from its curse; but is he now released from obedience to its claims? Manifestly no. As soon as he should kill another man, he would be again "under the law."

The same process is followed by the Lord in the plan for saving man from eternal death.

"The law of God serves as a 'school-master to bring us to Christ.' It is a mirror into which the sinner looks and sees himself as he is, lost and unclean. But the mirror can not cleanse him; it only suggests a good cleanser. It points the sinner to Christ, who is spoken of in one place in the Bible as 'full of grace,' and in another as the 'water of life.'"

NEXT ANNUAL MEETING OF MISSIONARY WOMEN IN NEWARK M. E. CHURCH.

The next annual district meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church will be held in September, 1917, in Newark First M. E. church. The delegates elected at the meeting at Roseville Thursday, to the Cincinnati branch meeting to be held in Huntington, W. Va., a Oct. 10-12, as were announced Thursday are Mrs. George Smith, Newark, and Mrs. Samuel Moore, Roseville. The alternates are Mrs. T. B. Jones, Granville, and Mrs. Frank Ransbottom, Roseville. The delegate and alternate to the young people's branch of the Huntington meet are Miss Flossie Jones, Roseville, and Miss Marguerite Evans, Zanesville.

SURVEY OF INDUSTRIES REVEALS THAT MANY CONCERNS TO EXPAND.

The Industrial Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce which has been working overtime to secure something better for Newark and build up its industrial zone, reported at a meeting yesterday a number of propositions under consideration now. Quite a few replies have been received on the industrial survey, but there is still a great many that have not responded.

An appeal is made to the delinquent ones to speed up in order that their concern may be listed to help the Chamber in its work of advertising Newark.

The industrial survey is disclosing the fact that a number of the smaller concerns in Newark are desirous of branching out and securing larger quarters for their business. This makes it necessary to have a complete list of rooms and buildings which can be utilized for either manufacturing or commercial business.

There will be a lecture in Reclinal hall tonight at 7:30 by Dr. W. W. Stollbarger of the U. S. department of agriculture, Washington, D. C. All are invited.

CHANGING

OF TEN COMMANDMENTS IS LEADING-MAKING PILLARS OF GOD'S LAWS.

Evangelist Weaver Discusses Law and Grace of God in Address Before Good Sized Audience.

That the law of God, the ten commandments, is and will ever continue to be the standard of moral conduct and character, and that being understood, does not release the Christian from obedience to the just claims of that law, but actually places him under greater obligation to obey it, was the theme of an address by Evangelist Weaver last night in his address on "Being Under the Law and Under Grace," at the big tent meeting. He said that the law of God, written in tablets of stone, was the only document God himself ever wrote. The law was written by Holy men of God under inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and the law was "written with the finger of God." The abrogation or attempt of the least particle of one of the ten commandments is equivalent to undermining one of the pillars of the government of Jehovah. The prophet Isaiah said concerning Christ who was to come, "The Lord (Jehovah) is well pleased for his (Christ's) righteousness sake. He (Christ) will magnify the law and make it honorable. As we look at the perfect life of Christ, we behold the law of God in action. His life serves as a magnifying glass through which we may look at the ten commandments and see them in all their glorious glory. Christ said, in the church on the mount, 'Think not that I am come to destroy the law, but to fulfill it. Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or tittle shall in no wise pass from the law till all be fulfilled.' 'A jot' is the smallest letter in the Hebrew alphabet, and a 'tittle' is one of the smallest marks in connection with a letter in the alphabet, corresponding to the setting of an 'i' or the passing of a 't'.

In the transgression of the law, the Lord Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Christ, therefore, suffered the penalty of a just law in order that the guilty transgressor might go free. His death on Calvary vindicated, or abrogated the claims of the law and forever established it. Faith in Christ establishes the law in the hearts of true Christians. "Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid, yea, we establish the law." The law of God is written upon the hearts of all true followers of Christ instead of upon tables of stone. In the provisions of the new covenant, the law serves to show what it means to be "under the law" and "under grace." If a man commits murder the civil law says that he must die as a penalty for transgressing the law. He is thus "under the law" and condemned to death. That is, he is "under the curse of the law." But the governor may pardon him, as is frequently the case. The man is then "under grace," and he must not suffer the penalty of the law. He is "released now from its curse; but is he now released from obedience to its claims? Manifestly no. As soon as he should kill another man, he would be again "under the law."

The same process is followed by the Lord in the plan for saving man from eternal death.

"The law of God serves as a 'school-master to bring us to Christ.' It is a mirror into which the sinner looks and sees himself as he is, lost and unclean. But the mirror can not cleanse him; it only suggests a good cleanser. ## Lodges

R. OF P.

Newark Lodge, No. 13.

The largest crowd for several meetings greeted the Chancellor Commander at the regular weekly meeting held on Thursday evening and the meeting was a very enjoyable one throughout.

The relief committee reports a very busy week visiting the sick members but say that they are improving.

After the routine of business was taken care of, four Esquires were given the Knight Rank, after which all joined the refreshment committee in the banquet hall.

Next Thursday evening will be the first anniversary of the dedication of the new Temple and on that occasion the "Blues" will entertain the "Reds" with a banquet. There will be no degree work on for this meeting and the evening will be spent in entertainment. Grand officers have been invited to attend and some of them are expected to be present.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS.

One of the most enjoyable meetings was held by Daisy Camp No. 5374 Tuesday. About 25 visitors from different parts of this district were present; also State Deputy Minnie Schott of Columbus. Eleven candidates were adopted to membership and four applications were balloted upon.

On Sept. 20 the Supreme Oracle, Myra B. Enright, will be in Canal Dover to attend a district meeting. A large number of Daisy Camp members are planning to go.

I. O. O. F.

Olive Branch Lodge, No. 34.

Olive Branch Lodge, No. 34, met Tuesday evening with a good attendance. After the routine business, two candidates were instructed in the mysteries of the first degree. A vote of thanks was extended to the Patriarch Militant for their assistance in the degree work. There will be an open meeting for all subordinate members in the county, in Mt. Olive Encampment, No. 12, Thursday, October 12, when the Grand Patriarch will be present. On next Tuesday evening the second degree will be conferred.

Mrs. Susie McAllister, postmaster at Fort Gaines, Ga., is the only postmaster in the United States to have been elected to that office by vote of the people.

AMUSEMENTS

The Auditorium.
Manager Penning of the Auditorium has a real classy musical show at his theatre this afternoon and evening in "Step Lively." The Bucyrus Evening Telegraph of the 14th, has the following to say about the show and performance: "About one of the greatest musical comedies ever visiting Wapakoneta was witnessed Tuesday evening in 'Step Lively.' This marked the opening of the local theatre and the managers could not have made a better selection. The crowd was small but appreciative and those who failed to be present certainly missed one of the best attractions of the season. 'Step Lively' is above the average in every way. It is well named. Everything is lively from start to finish. The comedy is high class and new. Hal Johnson gives a splendid female impersonation as Trudy DeSchance, actress Cleo Lane as Henry Rumbauer, the pickle king, and Billy Wyse, negro general factotum, afforded large quantities of real comedy. The chorus is well balanced and the girls for the most part attractive, while the costuming and scenic effects are above ordinary."

Seats are selling very fast and a large house is looked for.

Douglas Fairbanks, the Broadway star who plays the leading role in the new Triangle feature, "Reggie Mixes In," yielded to the persuasion of film magnates when he was told they would let him do all the wild stunts he wanted to. "The Lamb" was the mildest sort of starter. In it, he had to have a rattlesnake crawl over him, and had to encounter a savage wolf and a ferocious mountain lion face-to-face, fight three Indians armed with knives, soar in an airplane and operate a machine-gun. In "His Picture in the Papers," he had to go through a really serious automobile accident, box with a professional pugilist who had been instructed to put plenty of "pop" into his work, mess up a round dozen negro porters, be thrown twice from a moving train, and jump from an ocean liner and swim for shore.

In "Reggie Mixes In" he outdoes all previous startling performances, with a fight in which he wrestles, falls, crawls, staggers and plunges through fifteen minutes of physical combat with W. E. Lowery, an actor of powerful physique, who gives the athletic young star a tussle or very evident reality.

This feature together with "The Keystone Comedy 'Loves Getaway,'" also Billie Burke in chapter 15 of "Gloria's Romance," will be seen at the Auditorium tomorrow, Sunday.

The monte Carlo Girls will be the attraction appearing at the Auditorium on Monday afternoon and night.

Company has been the premier winner in the theatrical field for a good many seasons

Grows" and "The Yodel that Stole My Girl Away,"

Lynn H. Howe promises that his new program which comes to the Auditorium soon will eclipse in scope, variety, novelty and photographic perfection, and has ever presented. It depicts things that are vital and interesting in every corner of the world.

The new program for the coming engagement reveals the scenic charms of Hawaii, Norway and Spain, as well as the varied pastimes and pursuits of the natives. Thrills are furnished by a trip to the active volcano of Kilauea in Hawaii.

sinister consultation with his "yellow cabinet" composed of men of Oriental blood from every part of the Celestial and Eastern Empires. With the inborn treachery and deep deceit of the yellow men, All Singh, the all-powerful, pretends to quell the revolt and assures the Caucasian colony of his deep friendship. "Tittering duped by his suave and Oriental cunning, the trusting 'white devils' cheer him. But the flow of treachery are smoldering and All Singh sulks in disguise for America to carry out his plan of exterminating the white race and establishing the yellow men as rulers of the Western world."

The first episode terminates with a thrilling, vivid scene in which the Mongolian Demon strikes the first startling blow at the country he intends to destroy and dominate over. Like a bolt from the blue, "The Yellow Menace" descends upon Sleeping America.

and judging from the capable people engaged and the elaborate scenery specially built for this production for this season, the show will again break all records for attendance wherever they appear. George Leon and the Acrobatic eccentric dancing tramp comedian, Frank "Rags" Murphy, have opportunity to get mixed up into many fun-producing climaxes. Supporting these two sterling comedians are Arthur Lanning, a clever straight and characterized man and Fred Binder, a clever juvenile. The prima Donna is the handsome and shapely Perci Judah, a clever singer and a recruit from the musical field. She wears some of the most elaborate and costly gowns used on any stage.

The Little soubrette Grace Fletcher, who is full of pep, a clever dancer, has a good singing voice and a captivating personality. Dolly Morrissey is the ingenue and knows how to put a song over to obtain the best results and after seeing the dainty Dolly you will understand how she became famous in burlesque is bound. A special feature with the Monte Carlo Girls is the best singing act on the road known as the "Four Big Singers."

The chorus consists of twenty youthful, dancing, singing, girls. A special ladies twenty-five cent matinee will be given Monday. Seats now ready.

In presenting Al H. Wilson the singing dialect comedian in an exquisite diversion of Irish song and romance through the seductive story of "My Killarney Rose" at the Auditorium on next Tuesday night, Manager Sidney R. Ellis has departed from the usual type of plays in which Mr. Wilson has heretofore appeared by providing his star with a unique song-play interpreted by romantic characters.

A number of new songs will be rendered during the performance by Mr. Wilson, the main numbers being "My Killarney Rose," "The Love I Give to You," "Mary Houlihan," "Where the Shamrock Grows,"

"Let's advertise what Newark possesses in our reading room," the manager of the organization said today.

Society

Dunlap-De Mar.
Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Gertrude De Mar of Cincinnati and Mr. Frank Dunlap, formerly of Newark, but now residing in Cincinnati. The marriage was solemnized August 30 in Cincinnati, and they will be at home to their friends in Dayton, where Mr. Dunlap is employed as a machinist. The bridegroom formerly resided at 79 Oakwood avenue.

On Wednesday Mrs. Evan Thomas very pleasantly entertained the school children and their mothers; also some of their neighbors and friends, at her home in the Welsh Hills. The following people enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Thomas: Mrs. George Richard and children, Mesdames Charles Richards and daughter, Howard Butcher, W. L. Showman, William Owen, Jr., and daughter, C. E. Jamison and daughters, Lester Kerr and children, Hayes Hankinson and son, Albert Hankinson and son, Oscar Osburn and son, John Hankinson and son, Cary Evans and daughter, Homer Price and children, Henry William and granddaughter Ina Starnier, Sam Wheller and children, Jennie Griffith, Emory Hankinson, John Hottinger and daughter, David Davis and daughters, Misses Carrie Hall, Mary Hall, Sylvia Hall, Indus Hall. At the noon hour a dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. Charles Cooper will be hostess to the members of the Harmonious club on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 19 at her home in Elmwood avenue. All the members are asked to be present.

Unique announcement was made Thursday evening of the approaching nuptials of Miss Emma Schaeffer of Zanesville and Mr. Oscar Hunt of Newark, at a delightful little card party given by Miss Cornelia Wilking of Dryden road, Zanesville. The guests numbering eight, were members of the Sigma Sigma sorority, and the announcement was made with the serving of refreshments. A color scheme of brown and white was carried out in the decorations and emphasized in the ice cream which was served in brown flower pots, with a layer of chocolate, out of which combs peeped as if growing in the natural earth and trained about each flower pot was a paper streamer on which was inscribed an invitation to the wedding. Each girl had to read her streamer aloud in order to make the story complete.

The wedding will take place at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Sept. 23 at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schaeffer of Brighton Boulevard, Zanesville, and will be witnessed only by the members of the family and the sorority girls. The marriage service will be read by the Rev. H. E. Porter of the Brighton Presbyterian church. Miss Schaeffer, who is a graduate of the Zanesville High school class of 1914, is prominent in the work of the young people's society of Brighton church, and is popular in social circles. Mr. Hunt is an employee of the Burke Golf Shaft company of Newark, and has made many friends in Zanesville during his visits there.

Stevens-Lane.
Married at the Second Presbyterian manse at noon today Mr. John E. Stevens, of Delaware, Ohio, and Miss Marion Leona Lane, of Newark. They were accompanied by relatives. Mr. Tullis performed the ceremony, using the beautiful ring service. The young couple left immediately for a wedding journey after which they will be at home to their friends.

Mrs. B. F. Patrick and children of this city who are spending the summer visiting relatives and friends in West Virginia are expected to arrive home the last of the month.

Prior-Tight.
A romance which had its inception at Cleveland, Ohio, several days ago culminated here yesterday afternoon in the marriage of Roger A. Prior of Berwind, Colo., and Miss Harriette A. Tight, of Cleveland, O. The groom preceded his bride several hours and met her on her arrival here. The ceremony was performed at 2:30 p. m. Sept. 1 at the Pilgrim Congregational church. Rev. F. C. Lewis, pastor, officiating. Mr. Prior was formerly a Newark boy and Miss Tight formerly lived in Granville, O.

Miss Margaretta Van R. Schuyler has had unusually good training for a suffrage worker. Born in New York city and always ambitious she began work as a newspaper reporter of the Portland Express, not in the society department nor as a sob writer, but as a straight reporter.

Milady's Boudoir

Throat Beauty.
No part of the body shows age more quickly than the throat, when the face is still fresh and plump the neck will grow creased and shriveled, and so it behooves milady who would be beautiful to take the very best care of her neck.

Scrubby throats, fat throats, flabby throats with double chins are all unsightly, and all must be corrected if you wish to take your place in the ranks of well groomed and beautiful women.

All the care in the world will not give you a pretty throat if you carry yourself badly. Remember that the sky is prettier than the ground, and look up when you walk. When reading bring the book up to a level with your eyes, so that you will not have to droop your head, else you will have a double chin.

Sleeping with the head dropped on the chest is another disastrous habit, and will defeat all your good resolutions in wide-awake hours. It is just as easy to sleep with the head thrown back and far more healthy for the lungs.

The wearing of high collars tends to leave an ugly red ring around the throat. If care is not taken, the ring will assume a brownish tint, and eventually will be impossible to remove. Before retiring every night, one should give the neck and throat a brisk massage with a complexion brush, dipped in warm soap suds. This will preserve the whiteness and softness in spite of the harsh collar.

Our Boys and Girls

There are many people that expect children to be naughty when the restraining influences of the parents is removed. But what is the matter with those children who are just as good when the "cat's away" as they are at other times? You might think there is something uncanny about such children. But really they are quite normal and full of fun. I know them myself and can say that they have the same instincts for play and mischief as other children, yet there is a difference.

The difference is in the attitude of the parents, especially of the mother, toward the play of the children. The mother has learned to suppress her own instincts to say "don't" every time one of the children starts to do something that is not on her progress. The children have the impulse to do a thousand things that seem foolish to you and me, but most of them are quite harmless and need not be stopped unless the adults are very selfish and irritable.

Personal

Every Day Etiquette

"George Fawcett has asked me to dine with him and attend the theatre," announced Edith. "Should I go with him alone?"

"A young girl does not accept invitations to lunch or dinner or go to the theatre at night without a chaperon. She may go to a matinee, however, without a chaperon," answered her aunt.

NEW PRESIDENT WELCOMED.
Delaware, Sept. 16.—Dr. John W. Hoffman, president of Ohio Wesleyan University, was greeted with cheers from students and faculty when he entered the first chapel service of the year arm in arm with Bishop Welch, former president, yesterday. Greetings were extended to the new president by faculty and students, and "hearty co-operation" was the keynote of Dr. Hoffman's reply.

VICE PRESIDENT OF NEW YORK BANK ONCE TAUGHT SCHOOL HERE

For the first time in 35 years William O. Jones visited Newark yesterday. When Mr. Jones last visited this town he was a country school teacher in North street, near Granville; today he is vice president of the National Park Bank in New York City, one of the big financial institutions of the country, having deposits of more than 160 million dollars. That's something of a step from a Licking county country school to the vice presidency of one of America's largest banks.

Mr. Jones was educated at Oberlin. He was the son of a minister who lived at or near Granville. While going over the scene of his young manhood at Granville he met one man whom he knew well in the old days—Tom Jones and he met one of his pupils whom he remembered as Kate Woodbury. In Newark yesterday Mr. Jones was the guest of his friend Walter C. Metz, president of the Newark Trust Company. He left for New York last night.

Foiling a Fakir.
A story used to be told at Cairo of Sir Richard Owen during one of his campaigns in Egypt. The great naturalist was seated in the shade on the veranda at Shepheard's hotel when the inevitable snake charmer came to him and proffered from his bag a lively specimen of the horned asp—the deadly creature. The professor gazed and, noting daintily, stooped and plucked the horns from the head of the reptile writhing at his feet, remarking to a bystander that the man would probably think twice before trying to palm off upon any one else a harmless snake as a creature by the aid of a couple of fish bones. With anybody else the charmer would probably have succeeded. He had tried it on the wrong man.

Some girls go in for the high brow stuff, others prefer the low neck.

Life is full of uncertainties, such as betting on a sure thing, for instance.

WOMAN NOW WALKS AFTER FOUR YEARS

Confined to Room a Year By Severe Form of Rheumatism—Claims Health Restored By Var-ne-sis

Bent over, deformed and crippled with the most severe form of rheumatism, called arthritic deformations, in such condition that the knees were drawn up to an angle of 35 degrees and the body stooped as shown in the photograph, was the experience of Miss Mary McColgan, who lives at 94 Main street, Woburn, Mass. When interviewed by reporters she said:

Woburn, Mass.
This is the condition that I was in when I commenced to take Var-ne-sis.

(Signed) MARY McCOLGAN.
COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss.

There personally appeared before me the said Mary McColgan and made oath that the above statement is true.

Woburn, Mass.
This is as I am at the present time.

(Signed) MARY McCOLGAN.
COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss.

Woburn, Nov. 24th, 1913.
There personally appeared before me the said Mary McColgan and made oath that the above statement is true.

(Signed) D. GAGE HUNT,
Notary Public.

"Yes, it is true that I am now able to go about the house without assistance, do my own work, sewing, etc., without any trouble, and I give all the credit to Var-ne-sis, after eminent specialists pronounced my case incurable. They told me there was no help for me, but I wanted to operate on one knee. I have had this condition for twelve years, and for many years I was unable to walk, except with the aid of crutches, when I would drag my foot along the floor. I could not dress myself and had to be helped from the bed to a chair. For four long, dread years I never left my home, except to have an X-ray. Oh, it is terrible to think what I have been through. My strength failed rapidly, the stiffness in almost every joint gave me great pain and the chalky deposits in my joints looked like large bunches. In spite of treatment by the best specialists, I grew worse, but I must say it was not their fault, for they tried everything they could think of to help me.

"One day I picked up a paper and read about a wonderful recovery Var-ne-sis had made, and I decided to try it. From then on I began to improve, my knees gradually straightened, the stiffness and pain left me and I have given Mr. Varney my crutches to add to his large collection. These photographs show me as I was when I commenced to take Var-ne-sis and as I am today. I must say I have amazed my friends, who knew my condition when I started on Var-ne-sis. If anyone doubts the facts of my case, I would be pleased to have them write, call on me or investigate any way they see fit.

W. A. Varney, of Lynn, the discoverer of Var-ne-sis, says: "It is hard for any one to believe these remarkable statements, but any intelligent man or woman knows I would not dare to make them if they were not true in every sense. It is a serious matter for any one to swear to a false statement, and this woman's condition has been sworn to. I want to meet the man or woman who dares to dispute the truth of my statements."

"In my Boston office, 140 Boylston street, I have an exhibition room devoted to the display of crutches, canes, wheelchairs, derrick, photographs and letters from many people. The name and address are on each article, and I have always advised the public and newspapers to investigate any or all of them."

Address: W. A. Varney, 140 Boylston street, Boston, Mass., for the Journal de la Rheumatisme.

Var-ne-sis is for sale at R. W. Smith, druggists, and all reliable druggists. Tell your druggist to get Var-ne-sis for you from his wholesaler or send to W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass.—Advertisement.

Your Personal Safety

Is always menaced by a cold. Perhaps slight in itself, it prepares the way for serious diseases, disarranges your stomach and digestion and inflames the membranes that line your body, with acute catarrh. It's only a step to chronic catarrh.

Catarrh is Stagnation PERUNA is Invigoration

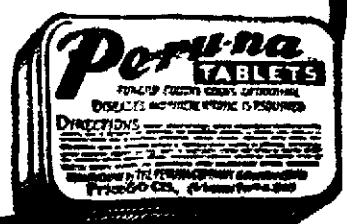

A sensible treatment will restore the fitful appetite, remove the waste matter, soothe the irritated membranes, dispel the catarrh, and invigorate the system. That's the mission of Peruna, a scientific medicine from vegetable sources compounded in a complete laboratory.

Remember that thousands have used it with success. Remember that it has made friends for nearly half a century. Ask yourself: "If it has helped so many, may it not help me?"

Peruna Tablets are a popular form of this reliable medicine. They are pleasant, convenient and effective. Ask your druggist for a box.

leased upon payment of their fines. One woman arrested on a charge of intoxication paid a $5 and costs fine.
Has Bloodpoisoning.
Walter Adkins of North Fourth street was removed to the City Hospital yesterday in the Bazar ambulance suffering with bloodpoisoning. He ran a nail into his right foot while at work at the A. H. Heisey company and the infection resulted. Dr. H. H. Postle is the attending physician.
Wagner Taken Home.
"Shorty" Wagner, who has been confined at the City Hospital for the past two weeks, threatened with an attack of typhoid fever, was removed to his home, 65 East Church street, yesterday afternoon in Bazar's white ambulance.
Has Columbus Teacher.
Frederick W. Connell today began a course of instruction upon the corner under Mr. Frank Todhunter, one of the best teachers in Columbus upon that instrument.
Carbuncle Delayed Trip.
The severe pain resulting from the bursting of a carbuncle on the back of his neck, last night caused Joseph Pilton, a Carnegie, Pa., man to abandon his trip over the Pennsylvania lines west, when the train reached this city. Bazar's ambulance was called and took the man from the station to the City Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. J. T. Harbottle. His condition was improved this afternoon.
Eagles Outing.
Over two hundred tickets have been sold for the Eagles outing at Beach Island club house tomorrow. Secretary Mat Knueffer states that the big dinner will be served promptly at 1 o'clock.
Cheap Peaches.
On account of but little demand for peaches Elbertas sold as low as 25 cents a bushel in jobbing houses the past few days and from that price up to a dollar. Peaches in Licking county are very scarce, not a single tree bearing in some orchards.
Remnants for Photographs.
Photographer Wagner in the Arcade annex has received several requests for photographs of Mrs. Mary Lovejoy, who will be one hundred years old next month and who was the first woman to apply for a pension under the Ashbrook widows' pension bill. Mr. Wagner took some excellent pictures of the centenarian, one of which appeared in Thursday's Advocate.

Hunting Is Good.
Many Newark hunters were in the field early yesterday, it being the first day of the open season for squirrel. Nearly all hunters bagged the full quota allowed by law, five squirrels. They are said to be plentiful in some parts of the county, while in others they are not so numerous.
Sidewalk Used By Runaway Horse; a Girl Stopped Him
The lives of more than a score of downtown shoppers early today, were endangered during the mad dash of a runaway horse along the sidewalk in North Park Place.
Men stood as if petrified. Women screamed and little children scurried to safety, as the horse, in its mad flight, swung from side to side on the sidewalk. With blood streaming from a nasty wound in its right side, the frightened animal continued along the sidewalk for nearly the entire length of the square. Several aged women narrowly escaped being trampled under the animal's feet, when they failed to hear the warning cries of other pedestrians.
At Third street a slip of a girl in white was seen to step in front of the animal and with hands raised, brought the horse to a stop. A man standing near grabbed the bridle and held the horse until Officer Hurlbaugh arrived and took the runaway to the Priest livery barn, where a veterinary called. The horse's injuries were not serious.
According to information received by Officer Hurlbaugh, the horse belonged to a man named Claggett and had broken its hitch strap at a place in Garfield avenue. In its wild run west on East Main street, the wagon was demolished and when the animal reached the square nothing remained but the harness.
Crossing the northeast corner of the park, the animal ran up on the sidewalk east of the McDaniel restaurant and continued on the walk until brought to a stop at Third street by the girl.

Confession of a Contributor.
I wish I might never have to dangle my profession on a label. I am always embarrassed when I am forced bluntly to expose it—for example, to the frank questions of the doctor's secretary or of a customs official. "Profession?" they ask, and I cringe before the admission, "I am a writer." I don't feel ladylike when I say the words. On such occasions I could give my entire remuneration for an Atlantic essay to be able to say, "I am a laundress."—Winifred Kirkland in Atlantic.

Deadhead, Weary of Name, Asks For a Change
Associated Press Telegram
Hammont, La., Sept. 8.—Charles Deadhead of Denham Springs, La., a farmer, is going to petition the next session of the Louisiana legislature to allow him to change his name to "Charles Head." Deadhead claims that his name has been a curse to him, that he has been looked at, teased, made fun of and ridiculed at every turn.
Recently he was a competitor in the annual Central railroad relay race to allow him to show a truck to a deadhead because he was referred to as deadhead. He says he has trouble with telegraph and telephone companies and is never allowed to talk.
Friends will aid him in making his name of the name.

HAGER SUSPENDED PENDING HEARING BEFORE DIRECTOR
Chief of Police James Sheridan announced today the suspension of Officer Charles Hager pending a hearing on charges of intoxication. The charges were made several days ago by Councilman W. C. Seward, who alleged that Hager was in an intoxicated condition and sleeping in a truck at the Spillman garage. The hearing will probably be held in the next few days.
Officer Hager promises to produce testimony, which he says, will show another "frame up" on the part of "somebody," whom he did not care to mention.
Hager Hearing Monday.
Upon the return this afternoon of Safety Director Cecil Bigbee from a business trip to Akron, the hearing in the case of Officer Hager was set for Monday morning at 9 o'clock. A number of subpoenas were issued for witnesses.
A Business Head.
"Open the window, waiter; I am just roasting!" a customer exclaimed who had just dined at a restaurant. "Shut it up, waiter; I am frozen," protested a man who had just sat down.
The waiter hesitated. The proprietor settled the dispute at once. "Obey the customer who has not yet dined," he said.—London Saturday Journal.

JONES MARE IS AHEAD IN THE 2:17 TROT AT MT. VERNON

At Mt. Vernon, Sept. 16.—Billy Nagers, Columbus driver and a former Mt. Vernon boy, won the feature event of the program at the Knox County fair race yesterday. Nagers, up behind Joseph Jay, won the 2:25 pace, although it took six heats to accomplish it. Three races postponed from Thursday were finished and one race of Friday's program had been completed at sundown. The 2:17 pace and the 2:30 trot, scheduled for Friday, were called off. Summaries:
In the 2:17 trot, B. H. Jones of New York took first money with Moyana winning the first second and fourth heats, finishing second in the third. Moyana beat Jack Woodcliff, now a Licking county horse. Moyana's best time was 2:17 1/4.
In the 2:30 trot, Belko, driven by Vanatia won first money finishing first in the first and third heats and second in the second and fourth. His time was 2:28 1/4.

Dayton Wins Easy Game In Central League Series
Dayton, Sept. 16.—Dayton easily won the second game of the series from Springfield yesterday, driving Clark to the bench in the fourth under a shower of base hits. Brown pitched a good ball for the victors, allowing 3 runs, 4 hits and 2 errors. Clark pitched nice ball, but errors behind him proved costly. The score:
Springfield 10; Dayton 10.
Batteries—Clark, Donley and Dunn; Rowan and Jacobs.

NEWARK MAN PAYS VISIT TO GIRLS' SCHOOL

"I recently spent twenty-four hours in a visit at the Girls' Industrial School near Delaware," said Milton R. Scott to The Advocate today. "It was not as an inspecting or investigating committee, but simply to observe its actual workings. And I have no hesitation in saying that the favorable reports which I had obtained from a number of other people were fully confirmed—even more than confirmed. Not the slightest note of discord or disorder came to my notice. In going through the cottages and the various working rooms, neatness and cleanliness were everywhere in plain view, and the girls all seemed cheerful and interested in their tasks. Of course, we all know that there is no perfection under the sun; but my survey of this institution, so far as it went, gave me a suggestion of perfection."

"In the evening there was a musicale in the chapel given by a number of the girls, which I think any judge of music which alas! I am not—would pronounce highly creditable to all the girls who took part in it, and their instructor, as well, and which would compare favorably with many more pretentious performances. I saw very clearly, as I looked in the faces of the 500 inmates who were assembled in the room, that while they knew they had been sent to the institution by the authority of the state, they had no sense of injustice or ill-treatment. On the other hand, in talking to a number of them, I was confirmed in my previous opinion that they all cherished both respect and friendliness for Mr. and Mrs. McNamara. And the reason for this was not far to seek. Mr. and Mrs. McNamara are careful to cherish and manifest constant sympathy and respect for them."

"The schools appeared to me to be well organized and standardized and in charge of faithful and fully competent teachers. It is needless to say that I found good order and cheerful faces in all of the rooms."

"The discipline of the institution appeared to me only to some short of that ideal wherein discipline is so perfect that there is no need of discipline. Mrs. McNamara informed me that the only punishment inflicted for offenses was to confine wrongdoers to their rooms, not on bread and water, but on bread and milk, until they could see their error and show due repentance, and that she found no difficulty in making this system of self-discipline work effectively and successfully."

"What inhumanity and cruelty and blunderbussing are often to be charged against those three words, 'order' and 'discipline' and 'punishment'. And what angels of mercy and civilization the same words can be made when they are duly charged with human love and sympathy and clear intelligence. I feel very certain that the State Board of Administration will never be called to investigate charges of cruelty against Mr. and Mrs. McNamara."

"The only respects in which from all my observations I could suggest any improvement or progressive policies would be to give the girls the privilege of reading newspapers as well as magazines, and allow them to write letters to friends and relatives once a week instead of only once a month. It would seem to me that the exercise of writing letters and the reading of newspapers as well, under proper care and counsel of course, would make for the education of the girls, and help to prepare them for the wide world, into which they will go when released."

"To my great surprise, I learned that neither the Governor nor the President of the State Board of Administration had ever visited the institution, no doubt on account of other pressing engagements, or perhaps, the Industrial School is situated so many miles from Columbus, that they cannot walk, and the roads being so poor, they have not yet been able to make the journey."

King's Daughters State Convention Here In October

The annual state convention of The King's Daughters and Sons is to be held in this city, Oct. 4, 5, 6. The convention promises to be one of more than usual interest, and the public is most cordially invited to attend any or all of the sessions, which will be held in the Second Presbyterian church. The entire convention program will appear later. Meanwhile it should be of interest to all the good people of Newark to inform themselves as to the workings of the four local circles, i. e., "The Silent," "The Brightening," "The Sunshine" and "The What-so-ever." These four circles have an active membership of nearly one hundred women. Through the courtesy of our daily papers, a brief outline of these circles will appear from time to time prior to the convention. The following is an outline of The What-so-ever Circle's history: The circle was organized in 1886 by Miss Janette Shields, well remembered and much beloved by the citizens of Newark. The national order of The King's Daughters was at that time a comparatively new organization, their charter dating from 1882.

The original plan was to have but ten members to a circle. The following were the ten little girls who were banded together under the leadership of Miss Shields to form the What-so-ever circle: Miss Miss Alice B. Ashbrook, Miss Elizabeth Felix, Mrs. Mattie Brady, Keller, Anna Owen, Grace Jones, Sadie Brown, Anna McCully, Kate Malone, Lillian Garber, Jane Felix White. True always to their name, they did "What-so-ever" their hands found to do in the way of being helpful to others.

Among the earlier duties they assumed was the dressing of dolls for children at the orphan home, carrying flowers to and reading to the sick. The circle, though now increased in numbers, has been active for thirty years and is still employed in much the same line of work.

The entire aim of The King's Daughters is not charity work alone, as many suppose it to be, but it hoped to add to the spiritual blessing of each and every member who in accepting the little silver cross which is the emblem of the order, pledges herself to service in the name of the King.

In 1911 the What-so-ever circle celebrated its 25th anniversary at the home of Mrs. C. F. Legge of Hudson avenue. Miss Shields, who is now a resident of Colorado, was present at the meeting. The circle now has an active membership of twenty-five, and a contributing list of fifty. The courtesy of an honorary membership is extended to Miss Anna Atcherly, Miss Mary Davis, Mr. G. Murry Moore and Mrs. Mary Wallace.

The What-so-ever circle is at present under the leadership of Mrs. Elizabeth Eagye.

Meetings are held the first and third Thursday evenings of each month at the homes of the members. Devotional, which precedes the business sessions, are in charge of the various members. Mr. W. E. Hopkins of the Associated Charities has proven a most valuable member of this circle during the past year.

The Silver Cross Magazine, which is the national publication of the order is subscribed for by more than two-thirds of the members.

The treasurer's report for the year 1915 showed an expenditure of nearly two hundred dollars for state and city charity work done.

The What-so-ever, the Brightening and Sunshine circles comprise what is known as the Visiting Nurse chapter in this city, and the relief provided in this way for the unfortunate victims of sickness is a most worthy feature of The King's Daughters Work.

Once a King's Daughter, always a King's Daughter, is one of the mottoes of the order, so to all those who have ever worn the little silver cross we extend a most hearty invitation to join us in our convention sessions and help to make this the best convention ever held in Ohio.
